

Crack the Biscuit

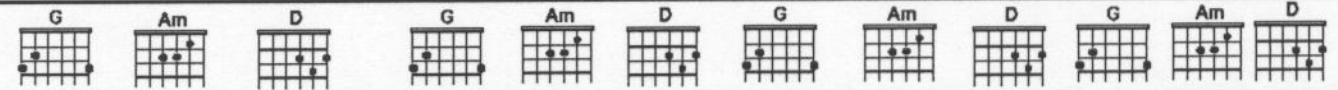

words & music
Dennis Selfridge

- 1) Down along the Jersey Shore, a summer's passing by, Reggae Band is playing from across the other side
- 2) He said "Mony mony over here and meet my pretty wife, she's really just my girlfriend but I've known her all my life
- 3) I meet so many characters runnin' in and out my life, I know not where they come from and I may never see them twice

In there walks a couple and they sit their bodies down, Da fellow he start swayin' and buys another round said
Won't you come and see my Harley on the sidewalk just outside, Too bad you got to play or else I take you for a ride, say
I don't recall the conversation, might not know his face, I only hope he's talkin' bout the motorcycle when he say

CHO: 1) Crack the biscuit, crack the biscuit, say crack the biscuit, hey crack the biscuit2)
2),3) Crack the biscuit, crack the biscuit, say crack the biscuit, hey crack the biscuit , I don't know..
