

Fear of the Ocean

words & music
Dennis Selfridge

1) I've got these melodies drivin' my fingers,
2) There's a logical end to my innocence,
3) I've got a fresh coat of paint in my memory

got my own simple feelings got my own little failures I'm feelin' proud of to share

to bear
my life

I don't have the faintest idea where they come from Some times when I'm skeptical I cherish the courage that got me here and I don't have time to care and some times I'm unaware and the faces I see every night

Chorus:

1), 3) Cause I see the beauty in mystery
2) So many dreamers are casualties and I've been afraid of the dark 'til they discover their part

It's just a typical fear of the ocean and they'll never rule your heart

Bridge:

Dreams don't have to call me now though I'd be glad to go.

But I can take this so much more and it lasts if you take it slow don't you know..... (To verse 3)
