

For Now

CAPO II

words & music
Dennis Selfridge

- (1) Haven't left the house for a couple days, no no. Haven't quite been myself but nothing's really changed
(2) I'm gonna try to be "la-de-da-de-da" I'm gonna listen to my friends and try not to live so hard

Can't shake the feeling this is all just in my mind, I crossed some "crazy" line but made it back in time (CHO)
For we can paint our lives the way they oughta be, Put the blame on something else and babble our philosophy (CHO)

CHO: For now For now I can only say, I can change my ways, For now I can offer We can be who we choose to.....

...for now BRIDGE: (A) We can talk about tomorrow, we can chop up yesterday (to B)
...for now (B) We can question our intentions, go on and do things anyway (to CHO)
