

Stormy

words & music
Dennis Selfridge

- 1) Stormy splashed on a TV show, first aired several years ago, needin' a heart and a liver just to stay alive for thirteen years
- 2) Stormy reached a tender age and vanished with a shimmer, left us all to realize "My God, she's just a kid"
- 3) Stormy passed to you and me this torch of our mortality, I can't believe a fate could be for such a little girl

Somehow when she'd reached her goal the subtle will of God took hold and whisked her off to far beyond, far before her time
Suddenly you see so clear, you can't deny the fact you're here and someday you will disappear, of that you can be sure
I'm wonderin' as I watched it there of family and friends I share, what is real and what's not fair, I haven't got a clue

CHO:

Whoa the world just don't make sense tonight, she had stubborn will to fight and lovin' folks to hold her tight

And no one knows quite why Stormy died
