

Time Again

CAPO III

words & music
Dennis Selfridge

(1) I'm not your problem anymore
(2) It's just an ordinary life
(4) In places I recall,

but I wish you could hear me now of tired and familiar ways a face can spark my memory

For every thing that we ignore Some I'll never like That growing up experience keeps right on going in spite of us and others just pass with age will never fell the same as it did

CHO:

My feelings stop and start and some lie

frozen

in my dreams

Where I hear that song or I smell the air and I'm in that time again,

I'm in thet "time again"

again

(to 2,3 repeat at End)
